Enjoyable Meeting Is Reported By C.D.A. Members and Guests

A delightful social evening was enjoyed by members of Court St. Catherine on Monday evening, Nov. 26th at Torrance Woman's Clubhouse, when Mrs. Lillian Schott was hostess, assisted by Meses. Laura Felker, Marguerite McVillie and Mary Mademaker. Among guests of the evening were Meses. Helen Catena, of Martins Ferry, Ohio, Joan Graziano, W. L. Le Blanc, Kasper Schott, Ray Reed, Ethel Derouin, C. E. Ward, Father P. J. McGuinness, and Father Mark O. Benvegnu, army chaplain, who spoke briefly of incidents relative to Army life.

Bridge and bunco were the evening's diversions with beautiful prizes presented to Meses. Edna Schott, Mrs. Ann McDonald for high scores; and to Meses. Beulah Landerville and Helen Gardner as winners in bunco. Delicious refreshments were served at the conclusion of card play.

Members and their guests brought to this meeting many useful gifts, which will be packaged and sent to nuns overseas through the National Catholic Welfare Council.

The next scheduled meeting of Court St. Catherine is Monday, Dec. 10 when, following the regular monthly business session, members will enjoy their first annual Christmas party.
